Excerpts of the Activity:

The Supreme Student Council of Camarines Sur Polytechnic Colleges successfully conducted the PASALABAT 2025, an annual tradition of thanksgiving held during the first night of Simbang Gabi on December 16, 2025 at the Holy Cross Parish Church Nabua, Camarines Sur. The activity was carried out in partnership with Alpha Phi Omega Theta Omega Collegiate Chapter (APO TOCC), whose support and cooperation greatly contributed to the success of the event.

PASALABAT, a Filipino tradition of sharing warm ginger tea and freshly baked pandesal after dawn masses, has long been embraced by the CSPC – Supreme Student Council as a symbol of kindness, gratitude, and shared humanity. Through this initiative, the Council sought to extend warmth and comfort to churchgoers while fostering a spirit of unity and compassion within the community. The distribution of ginger tea and pandesal symbolized not only physical nourishment but also the strengthening of shared humanity and cultural heritage during the Christmas season.

The smiles and words of gratitude from the individuals created a heartwarming atmosphere that truly embodied the essence of the Christmas season. Many churchgoers expressed appreciation for the simple yet meaningful gesture, acknowledging how the warm refreshments helped ease the early morning chill and added joy to their Simbang Gabi experience.

Overall, PASALABAT 2025 was a successful and fulfilling activity that exemplified the Council's dedication to service, gratitude, and cultural values.

Benefits Derived:

1. It strengthened the SSC's commitment to community service and social responsibility by allowing student leaders to actively participate in a meaningful outreach activity.
2. Helped preserve and promote Filipino traditions associated with Simbang Gabi and Christmas thanksgiving.
3. Provides warmth and comfort to churchgoers during the cool early-morning Simbang Gabi hours through the soothing effects of ginger tea.
